TOWN MAPS

www.townmaps.ie

Fáilte. Welcome To Cashel

Cashel is situated in the Golden Vale, an area of rolling pastureland in South Tipperary in the province of Munster. The 'City of Kings' as it became known, was home to the high kings of Munster, who ruled for centuries from the magnificent site of the Rock of Cashel, until the Norman invasion in the 12th century. Situated overlooking the town and encircling plain, the iconic Rock of Cashel is one of the most spectacular tourist attractions in Ireland and one of the most visited.

The Rock Of Cashel

The Rock of Cashel is a unique heritage site and it is universally recognised as having one of the world's greatest collections of medieval architecture and Celtic art. This limestone outcrop has the most complete Romanesque church in Ireland, a 13th century Gothic cathedral, a 12th century round tower and an exquisitely restored 15th-century Vicars Choral. It is here that the original St. Patrick's cross can be seen. www.heritageireland.ie T. (062) 61437

Historic Cashel

Cashel's rich history is reflected in its built heritage from its medieval monasteries and fortified town houses to its newly conserved town walls. View the Hackett Effigies and Old Medieval Town Walls at Bolton Library (antiquarian book collection now hosted Glucksman Library, University of Limerick). Visit the newly renovated Georgian-style Cashel Palace Hotel (1730) where Theophilus Bolton lived. The Historic Town Walls can found at Cashel Mart and O'Connors Close. Hore Abbey (also Hoare Abbey, sometimes known as St.Mary's) is a ruined Cistercian monastery near the Rock of Cashel, free to enter and a great place to take pictures.

The Heritage Centre & Tourist Office

www.cashel.ie | Tel: 085 1854774
The Heritage Centre and Tourist Office located on the Main Street should be your first stop in Cashel. A large scale model of Cashel in the 1640's highlights the lesser known treasures of the town. View the Royal Charters of Cashel, King Charles II 1663 and James II 1687, on permanent display. Free admission.

We can assist in tourist information and accommodation reservations. A wide range of free leaflets for Tipperary and surrounding areas, including a town map, is available. The Heritage Centre has a craft shop, stocking local crafts, including Wild Goose and Sheela Na Gig ceramics. A large selection of clothes, hats, scarves and souvenirs are on sale. Books including the Peter Tremayne collection, Irish History, cookery and a large selection of childrens books are on sale.

Fethard Horse Country Experience

Offers visitors the opportunity to discover the rich culture, heritage and history of the region. Part of Ireland's Ancient East, this interactive experience examines the relationship between the people, the land and the horse revealing how they are all inextricably linked.

Cashel, a great place to shop

Cashel's town centre is a thriving retail zone, with charming shops and lively cafes and pubs oozing with old charm. Ireland's world-renowned hospitality can be experienced in any of its bars and pubs and a pint of Guinness can be enjoyed in the town where Arthur Guinness first worked.

Walking

The Tipperary Heritage Way Walk (Cashel to The Vee, County. Waterford) brings you along the banks of the River Suir. This is a great way to discover flora and fauna. The Cashel to Golden section is an 11km linear walk and if you walk a little further along the Suir you will find the beautiful ruins of Athassel Abbey.

St Declan's Way

The ancient pilgrim path of St. Declan's Way takes a 96km (56 mile) route from the famous Rock of Cashel in Co. Tipperary to Ardmore, Co. Waterford. W. www.stdeclansway.ie
It is a modern walking route linking the ancient ecclesiastical centres of Ardmore in County Waterford and Cashel in County Tipperary. It crosses the Knockmealdown Mountains at Bearna Cloch an Buideal (Bottleneck Pass) near Goatenbridge, Co. Tipperary, at an elevation of 537m. Apart from this stretch, the route passes through the picturesque undulating farmland of West Waterford and South Tipperary. www.pilgrims-path.ie
